

Celebrating 20 years of vintage dancing! The Grand Reunion Ball

Saturday, December 12, 2009

7:45 – 11:00 p.m.

A special anniversary is the perfect time to relive some of the wonderful dance moments we've had and to share them with old friends and new friends alike.

This year, our special ball will feature favorite dances from our programs and themes from the past 20 years. Dances will be from American, English, Scottish, Scandi, and Central European traditions and will span the period from 1800 to 1900. Music will be provided by Childgrove with Debbie Jackson, Anne Ogren and Martha Stokely.

Costume from any period from 1800 through 1900 is encouraged but not required. All levels of dancers are welcome. Preregistration is preferred.

Price: $25 per person in advance, $30 at the door. Includes the pre-ball workshops.

Pre-ball Workshops

Brush up your 19th century dance skills and get ready for the ball at these workshops led by Dance Mistress Cathy Stephens.

11:30–1:30 p.m. — Set dances and etiquette for all levels.

1:45–3:00 p.m. — Hongroise and Le Cavalier. For more experienced dancers.

Price: $5.00 per workshop, free if attending the ball

Location for workshops and ball: Pittsfield Grange Hall, 3337 Ann Arbor-Saline Rd.
